Network providers (also called in-network providers) agree to accept an agreed-upon amount as payment in full. Your contract explains your share of the cost of services rendered by network providers. The plan may include a deductible, a set amount (copay), and a percent of the costs (coinsurance).

When you go to an in-network provider:

- The provider can't "balance bill" you for charges greater than that amount.

When you go to an out-of-network provider:

- The amount you pay for health benefits is based on Humana's net charges.
- The amount you pay for dental and vision benefits is based on Humana's net charges.
