

Humana Term Life Insurance

Summary of benefits

Your employees will appreciate the peace of mind life coverage provides, and their loved ones will appreciate a benefit that can help guarantee a secure future if the unthinkable should happen. Term life provides protection for a defined period, during which premiums stay the same. It's one way to protect all that employees and their loved ones have, as well as their dreams.

Accelerated Benefit for Critical Illness

The amount payable is reduced by 25% at age 65 and another 25% at age 70. If the accelerated benefit is paid the amount of life insurance payable at the covered persons death will be reduced by the amount of the accelerated living benefit paid. If the total of the accelerated living benefit paid is equal to the amount of life insurance for the covered person, insurance on the covered person terminates and nothing will be paid at the covered persons' death.

No accelerated living benefit for critical illness is payable for skin cancer, other than malignant melanoma.

Pre-ex: Any loss due to a pre-existing condition will not be covered if it begins within 12 months after the Covered Persons Effective Date of Insurance.

Effective date of coverage

Coverage is effective on date selected by the employer for initial enrollment, or on the first premium due date for later enrollees.

Children's coverage

Newborn children are covered from birth provided they are added to the policy within 31 days, adopted children are covered at adoption, coverage for stepchildren may be added; unmarried dependent children are eligible for coverage until age 25. Dependent children are ineligible for coverage if the employee is denied coverage. Coverage terminates at 26.
